God leaves
quiet reminders
everywhere:
in the song that finds you,
the call that comes at the right time, the stranger who says what you needed, the wrong turn that somehow leads you home, and the small mercy timed so perfectly it almost feels like nothing.
God has a way of being found in the places we almost overlook.
MINDFULCHRISTIANITY